

Practice Quiz #1

Nomen: See Answer Key

Datum: _____

Section 1: Grammar

1. Please decline the noun ~~murus, -i, m. - wall~~ fenestra, -ae, f. - window

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	fenestra	fenestrae
Genitive	fenestrae	fenestrarum
Dative	fenestae	fenestris
Accusative	fenestram	fenestras
Ablative	fenestra	fenestris

2. Please decline the noun porta, -ae, f. - gate

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	porta	portae
Genitive	portae	portarum
Dative	portae	portis
Accusative	portam	portas
Ablative	porta	portis

Section 2: Vocabulary

1. For the following Latin forms, please give the English definitions:

a. ambulo, ambulare: to walk

b. fessus, -a, -um: tired

c. puella, -ae, f.: girl

d. porto, portare: to carry

e. mox: soon

2. For the following English forms, please give all the correct Latin information:

- a. to help: ambulo, ambulare
b. to hurry: festino, festinare
c. woman: femina, -ae, f.
d. tired: fessus, -a-um
e. to enter: intro, intrare

Section 3: Translation

1. Please underline every nominative and accusative noun in each sentence below.

2. Then, translate the following sentences into good, idiomatic English:

- a. colonus valdê fessus est quod diu in agro laborat.

The farmer is very tired because for a long time he is working in the field.

- b. Argus ieiunus est ubi Scintilla cenam parat, itaque cibum devorat et in viâ currit.

Argus is hungry when Scintilla prepares dinner, and so he eats the food and runs in the road.

- c. Filia bene in casâ cantat. Scintilla puellam laudat.

The daughter sings well in the house. Scintilla praises the girl.

Vocabulary

ager, -i, m. - field

bene - well

canto, cantare - to sing

colonus, -i, m. - farmer

curro, currere - to run devoro, devorare - to devour, eat diu - for a long time

ieiunus, -a, -um - hungry itaque - and so quod - because ubi - where, when valdê - very via, -ae, f. - road